

I think it would be in the best interest to open up some HF phone privileges without requiring a morse code test. I am study to take my Tech test this month and not having to be tested for cw would make me study and upgrade.

Thanks

Steve Woodruff - new ham in the works